- NO CELL PHONES and NO JEWELRY allowed in class.
- NO GUM is permitted on the premises, for students, parents or teachers. Appropriate attire must be worn to class. Hair for classes should be off the face and shoes should be properly fitted and safe to dance in.
Students who are NOT appropriately dressed will be asked to sit or leave the class.*
- Students are placed in appropriate classes according to age, experience and skill level. Dance classes are not always the same as grade levels in school. There is an end of the year evaluation taken and issued for the benefit of each student; this is based on the expertise of our faculty. The dancer's best interest is always in mind, a student may not always move to the next level or stay at the same level each year.
- Punctual and consistent attendance is expected of all BPDS Students. Students, who arrive late, may be asked to sit and watch.
- The Director will be happy to arrange a conference at the students or parents request— Please do not conference with teachers during or between classes.
- Siblings MUST be supervised. Children must be supervised when entering and leaving the building. Students may not be outside in their dance attire. The studio is not responsible for children who leave the premises.

- Competition teams, solos, and other performing groups are by invitation of the team or group director. Separate fees are required for team and group participation.
- Parents please sit in the observation areas; do not block the entrances or hallways.
- Food and drinks, other than bottled water, are not permitted in our studios.
- Students, parents and teachers are expected to pick up after themselves. Do not bring valuables. We are not responsible for lost or stolen items.
- Students, parents and teachers are expected to conduct themselves with respect for each other at all times. A co-operative environment is essential for learning.
